Kappa Tau, Southeastern Louisiana University

Stella George Stern Perry Award

Stella George Stern Perry was not only the first President of Alpha Omicron Pi, but was also the first President of Alpha Chapter. It is therefore appropriate that the award to honor her and carry her name goes each year to the one collegiate Chapter President who, by outstanding service to her chapter, exceptional inspiration to its members, and recognition by administration and/or fellow students of her college or university, typifies the Alpha Omicron Pi so beloved by Stella.

Anase Asom, Phi Chi

Helen St. Clair Mullan Award

This award honors an alumna member who has continually served AOII over the years, displaying loyal, faithful and devoted commitment to the Fraternity.

Linda Peters Collier, Chi Omicron

Elizabeth Heywood Wyman Award

This award honors an alumna member who has achieved outstanding success and/or national acclaim in the arts, her profession or service to humanity.

Martha Wright Suter, Alpha Phi

Mary Ann Rice Caldwell Award

Also known as the MARC Award, this prestigious award is named in honor of Mary Ann Rice Caldwell for her devoted service as a volunteer on the local and international level, as well as her valuable contributions as a headquarters staff member. The award recognizes the top alumnae chapter selected from those receiving Alumnae Chapter Excellence Awards.

Chicago West Suburban Alumnae

Adele K. Hinton Award

This award honors an alumna who has set an outstanding personal example for others in the Fraternity. She exemplifies the ideals of AOII and inspires others to remain involved in Fraternity service. This award is named in honor of Past International President Adele Kuflewski Hinton.

Rose Awards

These awards honor alumnae who serve AOII solely because of their devotion to the Fraternity, its members and its ideals - whether or not they hold a titled volunteer position.
